

Phillip J Botham, MSN, RN, CWON

PO Box 21989

Charleston, SC 29413

843-743-9989

E-mail: phillbotham@gmail.com

Experience:

May 2007 – Present Medical University of South Carolina Charleston, SC
Lead Coordinator for Wound, Ostomy and Continence Nursing and Vascular Access Insertion Nursing Programs –
Quality and Patient Safety
Consult and manage care in the inpatient and outpatient setting for patients with complex wounds and ostomies. Education and training of nurses and physicians in areas related to wound and ostomy. Management of Wound, Ostomy and Continence Nursing and Vascular Access Nursing Programs. Regulatory compliance, program leadership and development.

Feb 2005 – Feb 2007 Kaiser Permanente Home Health/Hospice San Francisco, CA
Wound Care Specialist
Consult and coordinate complex wound care treatments per agency protocols.

2002 - Dec 2004 Lower Keys Medical Center Key West, FL
Wound Care Coordinator
Coordinate hospital-based inpatient and outpatient wound care program.

1999 - 2002 Prison Health Services Key West, FL
Staff Nurse
Provided comprehensive medical care to inmates at Monroe County Detention Center.

1997 - 1999 Concentra Managed Care Charleston, SC
Catastrophic Case Manager
Case Management of clients with catastrophic injuries. Coordinated and managed multiple providers for clients to insure appropriate treatment for complex, multidisciplinary cases.

1996 - 1997 Heartland Health Center Charleston, SC
Unit Manager
Management of patients and staff, including hiring, scheduling, maintenance of regulatory documentation, and training on a 60 bed skilled nursing unit.

1995 - 1997 Healthsource, Inc. Charleston, SC
Catastrophic Case Manager and Utilization Review
Case Management of clients within the HMO's network. Coordinated and managed multiple providers for clients to insure appropriate treatment for complex, multidisciplinary cases.

1994 - 1995 St. Francis Home Health Care Charleston, SC
I.V. Team Nurse
Direct care for patients in need of Skilled Nursing in the home setting. Insertion and maintenance of I.V. catheters. Home instruction and delivery of I.V. therapies, chemotherapy.

1992 - 1994 Ralph Johnson V.A. Medical Center Charleston, SC
Staff Nurse, Medical Intensive Care Unit
Direct care for patients in Medical Intensive Care Unit. Multidisciplinary treatment of patients with critical medical needs.

Education:

1988–1992	Northeastern University, Boston, MA	B.S.N., College of Nursing
May 2004	Medical University of South Carolina	Specialized Wound Care Management
May 2009	Emory University	Ostomy Care and Management
December 2016	Western Governor's University	Master of Science in Nursing Leadership and Management

Certifications/Licensure:

Certified Wound & Ostomy Care Nurse (Current)	WOCNCB
Registered Nurse (Current)	State of South Carolina

Professional Organizations:

Wound, Ostomy, and Continence Nursing Society
World Council of Enterostomal Therapists
United Ostomy Association of America
Youth Rally Nurse - Volunteer since 2015
2015-Current Board of Directors – Wound, Ostomy, and Continence Certification Board (WOCNCB)
2015-Current – Chair of Board of Directors for Friends of the Charleston Center

Legal consulting services for content expertise related to wound and ostomy care

Published internationally on subject matter related to wound and ostomy care

Presenter nationally on subject matter related to wound and ostomy care

Presentation and publishing details available on request