

VICKIE L. WILLARD

Forensic Document Examiner

Board Certified:
Board of Forensic Document Examiners

9516 Brookside Road
Independence, OH 44131

Office: (216) 520-1520
vwillard@roadrunner.com

STATEMENT OF QUALIFICATIONS

TRAINING AND CONTINUING EDUCATION IN FORENSIC DOCUMENT EXAMINATION

Mentored and private study with qualified experienced document examiners [1975-1978]

Technical papers, workshops, classroom instruction and/or laboratory sessions sponsored by:

Association of Forensic Document Examiners (Annual Attendance)

Independent Association of Questioned Document Examiners

Co-sponsors of IAQDE conferences have included: University of Oklahoma Law Center [Oklahoma],

University of San Diego Law School [California], University of Dayton School of Law [Ohio],

Southern Methodist University School of Law [Texas]

American Academy of Forensic Sciences

FBI (and other organizations)

Presenters and participants included:

Forensic document examiners

Ink experts

Paper chemists

Forensic photographers

Medical professionals

Attorneys and law professors

Professionals in other related fields

Technical representatives of corporations

Psychologists

Others

Subjects included: handwriting identification and comparison, hand printing examination, laboratory techniques of ink analysis, indented writing examination, detection of alterations, dating of documents, typewriting comparison and identification factors, evidence collection, admissibility of evidence, expert witness testimony, document photography, digital imaging, preparation of demonstrative evidence, and other. Instructional visits to manufacturers of paper, watermark, and rubber stamps production.

Graduate of the Institute of Applied Science [1975]

Courses in criminal identification including handwriting and typewriting identification.

CERTIFICATION (by testing)

Board Certification through the Board of Forensic Document Examiners [BFDE] 2003 - present

[BFDE is accredited by the Forensic Specialties Accreditation Board]

Board Certification through the Association of Forensic Document Examiners [AFDE] 1991-2006

General Certification through the Association of Forensic Document Examiners [AFDE] 1987-2006

[AFDE discontinued offering a certification program in 2006, referring examiners instead to the BFDE for certification; however AFDE continues to recognize the achievement of those who completed testing in its Certification Program.]

COURT TESTIMONY

Ohio Common Pleas Courts of Cuyahoga, Lorain, Medina, Summit, Lake, Ashtabula, Allan, Columbiana, Delaware, Franklin, Geauga, Hamilton, Huron, Lucas, Mahoning, Marion, Montgomery, Noble, Portage, Stark, Trumbull, Wayne.

Pennsylvania: Common Pleas Court of Allegheny, Indiana, and Westmoreland Counties.

Kentucky: District Courts of Casey and Floyd Counties

Michigan: County of Wexford

Rhode Island: Superior Court, Providence.

Puerto Rico: Labor Arbitration, San Juan.

United States District Court: Ohio (Northern District), Kentucky (Western District), and West Virginia

United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Ohio.

United States Tax Court

Arbitration and Federal Mediation

Statement of Qualifications (page two)

CLIENTELE

Attorneys and law firms	Court appointments for indigents	Medical institutions
County Public Defender	Investigation and Security firms	Universities
Federal Public Defender	Financial institutions	Legal Aid Societies
Defense Attorneys	Insurance Companies	Title agencies
Plaintiff Attorneys	Corporations	[and others]
Law enforcement agencies	Labor unions

OPINIONS RENDERED

Signatures, handwriting, and hand printing on contracts, probate documents, deeds, bank documents, security agreements, corporate documents, insurance forms, petitions, credit receipts, medical records, state documents, prescriptions, anonymous letters, graffiti, and other.

Other issues include altered documents such as medical records and business records, erasures, obliterated writing, ink comparison, sequence of writing, deciphering illegible writing, fabricated photocopies, and other.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Board of Forensic Document Examiner (BFDE)

Offices held: President, Director (BFDE is accredited by the Forensic Specialties Accreditation Board)

Association of Forensic Document Examiners (AFDE)

An international organization for document examiners

Admittance testing required for Professional membership [Membership Status: Certified Professional]

Offices held: President, Vice President, Board Member, Membership Director.

Academy Standards Board (ASB)

A standards development organization for various forensic disciplines.

Member: Forensic Document Examination Committee.

Prior: American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM)

Member: Forensic Science Committee (1997-2018).

Prior: Forensic Specialties Accreditation Board (FSAB)

Director: 2000-2007

PRESENTATIONS

Presentations at symposiums sponsored by Association of Forensic Document Examiners. Programs on forensic document examination have been presented to bar associations [CLE credit], law enforcement officers, crime prevention organizations, bank personnel, criminalistics and university law school classes.

ARTICLES [published in the Journal of Forensic Document Examination]

Forensic Document Examination: Guidelines for Evaluating Credentials

Parkinson's Disease and Graphic Disturbance

"Marks" as Signatures [co-author]

Light and Electron Microscopy Approaches to Sequence of Writing Problems [co-author]

Guided Hand Signatures

A Study in Hand Printing

PROFICIENCY TESTING

Participant in proficiency testing on a biennial basis since 1987.

CONTINUING EDUCATION includes annual attendance at continuing education conferences and involvement in professional activities.

LABORATORY

Laboratory facilities for the examination of documents, including stereo microscope, magnifiers, reticles, measuring devices, special lighting, infrared spectral analysis equipment, latent image development equipment, computer digital imaging, photographic equipment for specialized document photography and preparation of court exhibits.